Louis is a Paralegal in the Crown Court department, where he supports senior solicitors and partners with a wide range of criminal offences. He takes on cases involving serious criminal matters such as drug trafficking and violent crimes, among others.

Louis holds both an LLB (Hons) and an LLM from Queen Mary University of London. Before joining Lloyds PR Solicitors, he gained invaluable experience at the Serious Fraud Office, assisting senior lawyers with disclosure in some of the country's most high-profile fraud cases. Additionally, Louis has volunteered at Citizens Advice, further honing his skills in client care and communication
